MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

New Delhi, the 17th July 1963

G.S.R. 1245.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3, read with section 7, of the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 (46 of 1948), the Central Government hereby makes the following Scheme further to amend the Coal Mines Provident Fund Scheme, 1948, published with the notification of the Government of India in the late Ministry of Labour, No. PF. 15(5)/48, dated the 11th December, 1948, namely:—

1. This Scheme may be called the Coal Mines Provident Fund (Sixth Amendment) Scheme, 1963.

3. In the Coal Mines Provident Fund Scheme, after paragraph 8, the following paragraph shall be inserted, namely:—

"8A Nomination of a substitute during absence of a Trustee—

(1) If a Trustee is unable to attend any meeting of the Board, he may by a written instrument, signed by him, addressed to the Chairman of the Board and explaining the reasons for his inability to attend the meeting, appoint any representative of the organisation which he represents on the Board, as his substitute for attending that meeting of the Board in his place and stead:

Provided that no such appointment shall be valid unless—

(i) such appointment has been approved by the Chairman of the Board, and
(ii) the instrument making such appointment has been received by the Chairman of the Board atleast fifteen days before the date fixed for the meeting.

(2) A substitute validly appointed under sub-paragraph (1) shall have all the rights and powers of a Trustee in relation to the meeting of the Board in respect of which he is appointed and shall receive fees and allowances, enjoy immunities and be under obligations as if he were a Trustee appointed under paragraph 3.

(3) A Trustee appointing a substitute for attending any meeting of the Board shall notwithstanding anything contained in this paragraph, continues to be liable for the misappropriation or misapplication of the Fund and shall also be liable for any act of miffeasance or non-feasance committed in relation to the Fund by the substitute appointed by him."

New Delhi, the 20th July 1963

G.S.R. 1248.—The following draft of the Mines Vocational Training Rules, 1963, which it is proposed to make, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (fff) of section 58 of the Mines Act, 1952 (35 of 1952), is hereby published, as required by sub-section (1) of section 59 of the said Act, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 31st October, 1963.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft rules before the date so specified, will be considered by the Central Government.

DRAFT RULES

CHAPTER I

Preliminary

1. Short title, application and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Mines Vocational Training Rules, 1963.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided, the rules shall apply to every mine of whatever description to which the Mines Act, 1952 applies.

(3) They shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of these rules or different classes of mines.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context;

(a) "Act" means the Mines Act, 1952 (35 of 1952);

(b) "form" means a form appended to these rules;

- (c) "manager" includes Mine Superintendent who is appointed by the owner or agent of a mine under section 17 of the Act and who is responsible for the control, management, supervision and direction of a mine;
- (d) "Schedule" means a Schedule appended to these rules;
- (e) "section" means a section of the Act.

CHAPTER II

Persons to be trained

3. Application of Rules.—These rules shall apply to all persons employed, or to be employed in a mine, other than the persons specified below:—

- (a) Persons employed or to be employed for the purpose of saving life or dealing with circumstances arising out of an accident; provided that a written notice of every such employment shall forthwith be sent to the Chief Inspector and Regional Inspector by the owner, agent or manager of the mine.
- (b) Persons holding position of supervision or management or employed in a confidential capacity enumerated below:—
 - (i) manager, undermanager, underground-manager, assistant manager, ventilation officer and safety officer;
 - (ii) mining, electrical and mechanical engineer;
 - (iii) overman, foreman, sirdar, and mate;
 - (iv) mechanical and electrical foreman;
 - (v) surveyor and assistant surveyor;
 - (vi) medical officer, chemist, assayer, metallurgist and welfare or personnel officer, and
 - (vii) any other person who, in the opinion of the Chief Inspector, holds a position of supervision or management.
- (c) Clerks, accountants and register keepers.
- (d) Persons who have undergone a course of training which is part of study at an institution approved by the Central Government.
- (e) Persons undergoing a course of training in the mine as mining apprentices, provided they work under the personal supervision of an official of the mine.
- (f) Apprentice mechanics or apprentice electricians, if they have undergone an approved course of training at a mine mechanisation centre or other institution approved by the Chief Inspector in this behalf.
- (g) If the Chief Inspector is of the opinion that it is not necessary for any specified person to undergo a course of training under these rules, he may by an order in writing and subject to such conditions as he may specify therein exempt the person from undergoing training under these rules.

4. Decision of Chief Inspector final.—If any question arises as to whether a particular person is to be trained or not under these rules, the decision of the Chief Inspector in the matter shall be final.

5. Standard of training.—The training given under these rules shall be to the satisfaction of the Chief Inspector who will be responsible for ensuring that the standard of training given at various training centres is uniform throughout the territories to which these rules apply.

CHAPTER III

General Vocational Training

6. Scope and standard.—(1) Every person to be newly employed in a mine on the surface or in open cast workings, before he is so employed shall undergo a course of theoretical and gallery training, as detailed in the First Schedule, which shall extend for not less than 12 working days.

(2) Every person to be newly employed below ground in a mine in which safety lamps are not required to be used (hereinafter called a non-gassy mine), shall, before he is so employed in addition to the training specified in sub-rule (1), undergo a course of training on actual operations which shall extend for not less than 21 working days.

(3) Every person to be newly employed below ground in a mine in which safety lamps are required to be used (hereinafter called a gassy mine), shall, before he is so employed in addition to the training specified in sub-rules (1) and (2), undergo a course of training about the dangers of inflammable gas and methods of dealing with the same as detailed in the Second Schedule, which shall extend for not less than 12 working days.

7. Training of persons previously employed.—Before a person who has previously worked in mines only on the surface or in open cast workings, is employed below ground, or before a person who has previously worked below ground in non-gassy mines only is employed below ground in a gassy mine, he shall undergo the additional courses of training specified in sub-rule (2) of rule 6 and/or sub-rule (3) of rule 6, as the case may be.

CHAPTER IV

Refresher Training

8. Scope and standard.—Whenever a person returns to employment on the surface or in open cast workings or to employment below ground in a mine after a break of 6 months or more, he shall, within one month of the re-employment, undergo refresher training as detailed in the Third Schedule, consisting of not less than—

- (1) three safety lectures and demonstrations, in case of persons re-employed on the surface or in open cast workings;
- (2) six safety lectures and demonstrations in addition to the training specified in clause (1), in case of persons re-employed below ground in a non-gassy mine;
- (3) six further lectures and demonstrations about the dangers of inflammable gas and methods of dealing with the same in addition to the training specified in clauses (1) and (2), in case of persons re-employed below ground in a gassy mine.

9. Training of person who shifts to another mine.—Whenever a mine worker who has not undergone the course of training specified under Chapter III of these rules, gets employment in another mine, he shall undergo a refresher training in accordance with rule 8.

10. Training of personnel in gassy mines.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, every person employed below ground in a gassy mine shall, within a period of one year from the date these Rules come into force undergo a refresher training of six lectures and demonstrations about the dangers of inflammable gas and methods of dealing with the same as detailed in the Third Schedule.

11 Arrangement of Refresher Training.—The refresher training may be so arranged that the persons concerned can attend the same either before or after their normal duty hours.

CHAPTER V

Training of Special Categories of Workmen

12. Training of line mistries.—Every person to be newly employed as a line mistry, either on surface or in open cast workings or below ground in a mine, shall, before he is so employed, in addition to the course of training specified under Chapter III or Chapter IV of these rules, as the case may be, undergo a course of training in tracklaying, as detailed in the Fourth Schedule, which shall extend to not less than 12 working days.

13. Training of persons in handling of explosives.—Every person other than a qualified shot firer or blaster, who is likely to be employed on a job which involves handling of explosives shall, before he is so employed, in addition to the course of training specified under Chapter III or Chapter IV of these rules, as the case may be, undergo a course of training in the handling and use of explosives, as detailed in the Fifth Schedule, which shall extend to not less than six lectures and demonstrations so arranged that the persons concerned can attend the same either before or after their normal duty hours. The training specified in the Fifth Schedule shall also be undergone before re-employment by every person, who even though he has undergone the said training, has not worked in handling explosives for a continuous period of six months or more, but is to be re-employed in such capacity.

14. Training of persons on shot firing.—(1) Every person, who is likely to become eligible for appearing at the Shot-firers' Certificate of Competency Examination and who intends to appear for the said examination, within the succeeding three months, shall, before he appears for the examination, in addition to the training specified in rule 13, undergo a course of training, as detailed in the Sixth Schedule.

(2) The training specified in the Sixth Schedule shall also be undergone within one month of employment/re-employment by:—

- (i) every shot-firer or blaster whenever he gets employment in another mine; and
- (ii) every person who though qualified to fire shots has not worked as a shot-firer for a continuous period of six months or more, but is to be re-employed in such capacity.

15. Limitation time for training of persons already employed on handling of explosives.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, every person employed on handling of explosives shall undergo the training specified in rule 13 within a period of one year from the date these Rules come into force.

16. Periodical training in gas-testing.—Every person holding a gas-testing certificate shall, once in every year, and every person who is likely to become eligible for appearing at the Gas-Testing Certificate Examination and who intends to appear for the said examination within the succeeding three months, shall before he appears for the examination undergo a course of training in the dangers of inflammable gas and methods of dealing with the same, as detailed in the Seventh Schedule.

CHAPTER VI

Training Centres and Arrangements for Training

17. Training Centre.—The owner, agent or manager of every mine shall provide and maintain a training centre which shall be adequate to impart training under these rules to persons who are employed or are to be employed in the mine.

Provided that where special circumstances exist, the Chief Inspector may, by an order in writing and subject to such conditions as he may specify therein authorise the owners, agents or managers of a number of mines to provide and maintain a common training centre.

18. Staff in training centre.—Every training centre shall have such staff (including a training officer), equipment and other training facilities as the Chief Inspector may approve or require by an order in writing.

19. Training Officer.—(1) Every training centre shall be placed under the charge of a training officer holding such qualifications and experience and working whole-time or part-time as the Chief Inspector may specify.

(2) Where by reason of temporary absence, illness or any other similar cause, the training officer is unable to perform his duties, the owner, agent or manager shall authorise in writing a person whom he considers competent to act in his place.

Provided that no such authority shall have effect for a period exceeding 30 days except with the previous consent in writing of the Chief Inspector or the Regional Inspector.

(3) A written notice of every appointment, authorisation, discharge, dismissal, resignation or termination of service of every training officer and of the date thereof shall be sent by the owner, agent or manager to the Chief Inspector and Regional Inspector within 7 days from the date of such appointment, authorisation, discharge, dismissal, resignation or termination of service.

20. Duties of training officers.—(1) It shall be the duty of the training officer—

- (i) to organise and supervise the training of every person undergoing training under him in pursuance of these rules;
- (ii) to keep records of the training given to every person and to furnish weekly reports to the manager on the progress of the person during the period of his training;
- (iii) to keep records of the supervision provided for the training, on actual operations referred to in sub-rule (2) of rule 6; and
- (iv) to carry out such other duties as may be laid down in these rules.

(2) Every training officer shall keep a daily record of his work and shall, at the end of every year, forward to the Chief Inspector, through the manager of the mine concerned, a summary of the report of his work during the year.

21. Trainers.—For the purpose of training specified in sub-rule (2) of rule 6, every person to be employed below ground in a mine shall be placed under the direct personal supervision of an experienced workman of an appropriate category, employed on actual operations, hereinafter called a trainer.

22. Qualifications of trainers.—(1) No person shall be employed as a trainer unless he has himself undergone a course of refresher training consisting of not less than six safety lectures specially designed for the purpose and approved by the Chief Inspector.

(2) Trainers shall be selected only from amongst safety-minded skilled and experienced workmen having an aptitude for giving guidance and training in actual operations to other persons.

23. Duties of trainers.—(1) The trainer shall be responsible for the safety of the persons attached to him during the whole of the working shift.

(2) While carrying out his normal work, the trainer shall see that the persons under training with him pick up work, understand the dangers inherent in the operation and develop safety habits.

(3) The trainer shall see that the persons attached to him travel to and from their working places along with him.

(4) A trainer shall show to the persons attached to him, the quickest and safest routes of egress from sections in which he is likely to work, for use in the event of an emergency.

24. Training allowance.—Every trainer shall be paid by the owner, agent or manager in addition to his normal wages, a training allowance, of 50 paise per trainee for every day a trainee has worked under his supervision. Not more than 6 trainees shall be placed under the charge of a trainer at any time.

CHAPTER VII

Rights and Certification of Trainees

25. Application of laws to trainees.—Every person undergoing training in accordance with Chapter III of these rules and under rule 12 shall be treated as a trainee not a regular worker.

26. Stipend to trainees.—Every person undergoing training under Chapters III and V of these rules shall be paid by the owner, agent or manager an allowance of Re. 1.50 (all inclusive) per day (including closed days).

27. Certification of trainees.—(1) Every person undergoing a course of training prescribed in these rules, shall at the completion of the training, be interviewed by the training officer and if, the latter is satisfied as to his progress and performance, he shall be granted a certificate under these rules in Form A or B.

as the case may be. If, however, the training officer is not satisfied with the progress or performance of any trainee, he shall report accordingly to the manager, who may either discharge him or if he thinks fit, send him back for a further period of training.

(2) The cost of the photograph to be fixed on the certificate in Form A or B shall be borne by the owner, agent or manager.

(3) A person who has obtained a certificate on successful completion of training shall become eligible for absorption, in any mine, in a vacancy of the category for which he has been trained.

28. Certificate to be delivered to the management.—When the holder of a certificate granted under these rules is employed in a mine or when a person employed in a mine obtains a certificate under these rules, he shall deliver such certificate to the manager of the mine, in which he is for the time being employed. The manager shall deliver to such person a receipt for the same; and shall retain the certificate in the office at the mine so long as the holder thereof is so employed and shall return it to the holder on his ceasing to be so employed.

FIRST SCHEDULE

Course of Theoretical and Gallery training

[See rule 6(1)]

1st Day (Surface)

Talk	Organisation, time keeping, the need for discipline and punctuality, other matters of general interest.
Visit	Attendance Room, Pit head bath, Canteen, Rest shelter, Creche.

2nd Day (Surface)

Talk	Rules, standing orders etc., in force at the mine. Safety in the vicinity of surface machinery.
Visit	Tramways and Sidings, Haulage Room, Wind-ing Room, Boilers, Electrical Gears, Work-shops.

3rd Day (Surface)

Talk	Benching in Quarries, Dressing of overhangs, Fencings, First Aid and Hygiene.
Visit	Quarries, Medical Centres.
Practical Work	Tub manipulation, coupling, trammimg, lockering, re-railing of tubs.

4th Day

Talk	Methods of transport below ground, signalling Man-holes and other safety appliances on haulage roads.

Training in First Aid :

Visit	Under ground —pit bottom, travelling road-ways, second outlet, haulage and trammimg roadways, stations and fencings below ground.
Practical Work	Tub manipulation; coupling, trammimg, lock-ering, re-railing of tubs and signalling.

5th & 6th Days

Talk

Face work, roof control, testing of roof, support regulations, First Aid and Hygiene.

Training in First Aid :

Visit

Underground—working faces, underground latrines, first aid stations.

Practical Work

Prop setting, chock building and withdrawal.

7th Day

Talk

Ventilation, lighting.

Training in First Aid :

Visit

Underground—Ventilation and lighting devices—Fan house, air crossings, stoppings, regulator, doors, etc.

Practical Work

Erecting brattices. Ventilation of blind ends.

8th Day

Talk

Shot-firing and Safety Regulations.

Training in First Aid :

Visit

Underground—Practical demonstration of taking shelter, etc.

Practical Work

Building of sand-bag stoppings.

9th Day

Talk

Causes and prevention of fires underground. Noxious gases—their occurrence and detection; Care of lamps.

Training in First Aid :

Visit

Underground—Practical demonstration of fire-fighting devices, Detection of Noxious gases.10th Day

Talk

Legislation and duties of work-persons.

Training in First Aid :

Visit

Underground—“What’s wrong”.

Practical Work

Laying of pipes and tracks.

11th Day

Talk

Mine gases, (particularly) carbon monoxide, Carbon dioxide and methane), and dangers therefrom. Testing for same. General revision.

Training in First Aid :

Practical Work

Cleaning up of galleries.

12th Day

Talk

Mine officials and their duties. Oral test.

SECOND SCHEDULE*Course of Special additional training for entrants to gassy mines*

[See rule 6(3)].

1st Day

Talk

Danger of inflammable gas. Effects of inflammable gas in different percentages. Gas Caps.

Demonstration

Gas Caps.

Visit

Visit to safety lamp cabin to see how arc maintained and cleaned etc.

2nd Day

Talk	Difference between combustion and explosion After-damp—its effects.
Demonstration	Difference between combustion and explosion
Visit	Visit to safety lamps cabin to study construction of safety lamps.

3rd Day

Talk	Principle of construction of flame safety lamps and of flame-proof electrical equipment.
Demonstration	Effect of wire gauze on flame.
Visit	Visit to workshop to see flame-proof equipment.

4th Day

Talk	Methods of testing for inflammable gas with flame safety lamp.
Practical work	Testing for gas.

5th Day

Talk	Duties of workers in gassy mines and where inflammable gas exists. Dangers of smoking. Contrabands.
Visit	Visit (1) to lamp cabin to see arrangements for checking lamps before issue and after receipt and (2) to the mine entrances to see arrangements for checking safety lamps and for searching of contrabands.
Practical work	Cleaning and assembling safety lamps.

6th Day

Talk	Assembly of flame safety lamps. Care of Safety lamps during use. Dangers of opening or tampering with safety lamps.
Practical work	Cleaning and assembling safety lamps.

7th Day

Talk	Occurrence of inflammable gas. Methods of removing gas. Necessity for good ventilation at the face. Ventilation devices.
Visit	Surface and underground visit to see ventilation devices.
Practical Work	Erection of brattices. Ventilation of blind ends.

8th & 9th Days

Talk	Explosion and health hazards from dust. Methods of suppressing dust. Water sprays. Cleaning and stone dusting. Wet cutting. Wet drilling. Use of respirators.
Visit	Underground visit to see dust suppression arrangements and measures.

10th & 11th Days

- Talk Dangers of shot-firing in gassy mines. Precautions.
- Visit Underground visit to see shot-firing.

12th Day

- General revision.
Oral test.
Presentation of certificates to successful candidates.

THIRD SCHEDULE

Refresher Training

(See rule 8)

(Each talk to be followed by discussion. Duration of each talk and discussion to be not less than two hours).

1. For surface/open cast workers.

- Talk 1 . . . Mine organisation, time-keeping, need for discipline and punctuality and other matters of general interest.
- Talk 2 . . . Rules, standing orders in force at the mine. Safety in the vicinity of machinery.
- Talk 3 . . . Benching in quarries. Dressing of overhangs. Fencing. First Aid and Hygiene.

2. Additional for Underground workers.

- Talk 4 . . . Dangers from haulage. Manholes and other safety appliances. Signalling.
- Talk 5 . . . Testing of roof. Dressing of roof and overhangs. Supports, checks, bars and props.
- Talk 6 . . . Ventilation. Control devices. Danger from old workings. Causes and prevention of fires. Noxious gases.
- Talk 7 . . . Dangers of shot-firing. Safety precautions.
- Talk 8 . . . Legislation. Duties of workmen. Fencings.
- Talk 9 . . . General revision and discussion.

3. Additional for gassy mine workers.

- Talk 10 . . . Occurrence of inflammable gas. Danger from inflammable gas. Combustion and explosion. After damp. Its effects.
- Talk 11 . . . Principle of construction of flame safety lamps and of flameproof equipment. Gas Caps. Methods of testing for gas.
- Talk 12 . . . Duties of workers where inflammable gas exists. Contrabands. Dangers of tampering with safety lamps. Methods of removing gas. Necessity of good ventilation at the face.
- Talk 13 . . . Explosion and health hazard from dust. Methods of suppressing dust.
- Talk 14 . . . Dangers of shot-firing in gassy mines. Precautions.
- Talk 15 . . . General revision and discussion.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

*Course of training in track-laying
(See Rule 12)*

1st Day	.	.	General talk : Need for proper track-laying different types of haulages in mines and track standards for each type. Tools required for the work. Practical : Handling of tools. Visit to different haulage-sites, if possible.
2nd Day	.	.	Talk I : Materials for track-laying i.e., rails, sleepers, dog nails, fish-plates, fish-bolts, ballast, chair pieces. Practical : Handling of different track-laying material. Talk II : Material quantities.
3rd Day	.	.	Talk : Methods of laying single and double track. Ballasting. Practical : Laying of single and double track.
4th Day	.	.	Talk : Laying of curved tracks, radius of curves, bending of rails. Tools for bending rails. Practical : Bending of rails.
5th Day	.	.	Talk : Super elevation for curves. Widening of the gauge at curves. Methods of laying. Practical : Laying of curve single track.
6th Day	.	.	Talk : Reverse and vertical curves, Friction and vertical rollers etc. Practical : Laying of curved double track.
7th Day	.	.	Talk : Points, design of switches and method of laying Practical : Laying of switches.
8th Day	.	.	Talk : Crossings and angle of crossing. Method of laying. Practical : Laying of crossings.
9th Day	.	.	Talk : 3-rail track ; its uses. Method of laying. Practical : Laying of 3-rail track.
10th Day	.	.	Talk : De-railers, re-railers, Jazz rails etc. Other special track equipment ; their laying and use. Practical : Laying of special track equipment.
11th Day	.	.	Talk : Inspection and maintenance. General revision. Practical : Hints on inspection and maintenance.
12th Day	.	.	General revision and discussions. Presentation of certificates to successful candidates.

FIFTH SCHEDULE

*Course of training in the handling and use of explosives
(See rule 13)*

1st Day	.	.	What is an explosive ? General composition of explosives. Difference between low and high explosives. Low explosives and their firing. Safety fuse and its burning speed.
2nd Day	.	.	High explosives. Their detonation. Electric shot-firing.
3rd Day	.	.	Dangers from explosives. Charging and firing of shots. Clearing of fumes produced during shot-firing.
4th Day	.	.	Dangerous from blasting in gassy mines. Cracks in shot-holes. Permitted explosives.
5th Day	.	.	Dangerous nature of explosives. Care in handling explosives. Taking shelter. Storage of explosives on surface and below ground. Issue of explosive. Return of unused explosive.
6th Day	.	.	General revision and discussion.

SIXTH SCHEDULE

*Course of training on shot-firing.
(See rule 14)*

1st Day	.	.	High and low explosives. Difference between them. Their constituent.
2nd Day	.	.	Shot-firing accessories. Safety fuse and its burning speed. Detonators.
3rd Day	.	.	Provisions of regulations etc. relating to transport, handling and use of explosives.

- 4th Day . . . Storage of explosives both above and below ground. Issue of explosives. Return of unused explosives.

MINISTRY OF LAW

(Department of Legal Affairs)

New Delhi, the 19th July 1963

G.S.R. 1265.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the recruitment and conditions of service of persons appointed as members of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Income-tax Appellate Tribunal Members (Recruitment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 1962.

(2) Rule 4 shall come into force at once; rule 3 shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of April, 1962 and the remaining rules shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of September, 1960.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) an 'accountant member' means an accountant member of the Tribunal;

(b) a 'judicial member' means a judicial member of the Tribunal;

- (c) a 'member' means a member of the Tribunal but, except for the purposes of rules 3(3), 3(4), 8, 11, 12 and 13 does not include the President;
- (d) the 'President' means the President of the Tribunal;
- (e) the 'Tribunal' means the Appellate Tribunal constituted under section 252 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961).

3. Qualifications for recruitment.—(1) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a judicial member unless:—

- (i) he has for at least ten years held a civil judicial post; or
- (ii) he has been a member of the Central Legal Service, not below Grade III, for at least three years; or
- (iii) he has been in practice as an advocate for at least ten years.

(2) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as an accountant member unless:—

- (i) he has for at least ten years been in the practice of accountancy—
 - (a) as a chartered accountant under the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 (38 of 1949); or
 - (b) as a registered accountant under any law formerly in force; or
 - (c) partly as a registered accountant and partly as a chartered accountant; or
- (ii) he has served as an Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax for at least three years.

(3) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a member if—

- (i) he is less than thirty-five years of age; or
- (ii) he is more than fifty years of age: Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed—
 - (a) in the case of a person who is already in Government service, to such extent as the Central Government may determine; and
 - (b) in the case of a person belonging to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe or to any special category specified by the Central Government, to such extent as may be specified in the general orders made by the Central Government relating to recruitment of such persons to Government service.

(4) (a) A person, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the lifetime of such spouse, shall not be eligible for appointment as a member;

(b) A woman, whose marriage is void by reason of her husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall not be eligible for appointment as a member:

Provided that the Central Government may, if it is satisfied that there are special grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

4. Method of recruitment.—(1) There shall be a Selection Board consisting of:—

- (i) a nominee of the Minister of Law;
- (ii) The Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Law (Department of Legal Affairs);

- (iii) The President of the Tribunal; and
- (iv) such other persons, if any, not exceeding two, as the Minister of Law may appoint.

(2) The nominee of the Minister of Law shall be the Chairman of the Selection Board.

(3) The Selection Board shall recommend persons for appointment as members from amongst the persons on the list of candidates prepared by the Ministry of Law after inviting applications therefor by advertisement or on the recommendations of the appropriate authorities or by personal contacts.

(4) The Central Government shall after taking into consideration the recommendation of the Selection Board make a list of persons selected for appointment as members.

5. Medical fitness.—No person shall be appointed as a member unless he is included in the list made under sub-rule (4) of rule 4 and unless he is declared medically fit by a Medical Board to be constituted by the Central Government for the purpose, unless he has already been declared fit by an equivalent authority.

6. Probation.—(1) Every person appointed as a member shall be on probation for a period of two years.

(2) The Central Government may, in the case of any person, extend or reduce the period of his probation.

(3) At any time during the period of probation, and without any reasons being assigned, such person may be discharged from service as a member.

7. The President.—(1) The Central Government shall ordinarily appoint a judicial member to be the President.

(2) The appointment of the President may be in an officiating or substantive capacity.

8. Classification.—A member shall be a member of the General Central Service, Class I, Gazetted, unless he is a member of any other Central Civil Service.

9. Pay.—(1) The pay of the President shall be Rs. 2,750 per month and the time-scale of pay of a member shall be Rs. 1,800—100—2,000—125/2—2,250.

(2) Where a person is appointed as a member, his initial pay shall be fixed at the lowest stage of the time-scale:

Provided that the Central Government may for special reasons fix the pay of such person at a higher stage of the time-scale.

10. Seniority.—(1) Seniority of a member shall be determined in accordance with the date of the list of persons selected for appointment as members made under sub-rule (4) of rule 4.

(2) If two or more members are selected by the same list, seniority of such members inter se shall be determined in accordance with their ranking in that list.

11. Compulsory retirement.—The date of compulsory retirement of a member shall be the date on which he attains the age of fifty-eight years.

12. Retirement benefit.—(1) A member who, at the time of his appointment as member, was holding a pensionable post under a Government in a permanent capacity shall be eligible for pension in accordance with the rules for pension applicable to him at the time of his retirement.

(2) A member to whom sub-rule (1) does not apply shall be entitled to Contributory Provident Fund benefits in accordance with the Contributory Provident Fund Rules (India), 1962;

Provided that—

- (i) a member appointed in a substantive capacity prior to the commencement of this rule and serving as a member at such commencement and a member appointed in a substantive capacity after the commencement of this rule but before the commencement of rule 4 may, if he was a subscriber to the Contributory Provident Fund at the time of his appointment in a substantive capacity, elect, within three months from the date of publication of these rules in the Official Gazette, for pensionary benefits; and.

(ii) a member appointed in a substantive capacity after the commencement of rule 4 may elect for pensionary benefits within three months of his appointment in a substantive capacity.

(3) A member shall communicate his election under clause (i) or (ii) to the proviso to sub-rule (2) to the Accounts Officer concerned, with a copy to the Secretary, Ministry of Law, Department of Legal Affairs, within the period specified therefor, and if no communication is received in the office of the Accounts Officer concerned within that period, the member shall be deemed to have exercised his election to continue to subscribe to the Contributory Provident Fund, in which case he shall not be entitled to any pension.

(4) Election once made under the proviso to sub-rule (2) shall be final.

13. Other conditions of Service.—The conditions of service of a member in respect of matters for which no provision is made in these rules shall be the same as may for the time being be applicable to other employees of the Government of India of a corresponding status.

14. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.
